IN REMOVAL PROCEEDINGS

INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Alfonso Caprara, Esquire

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Raegen T. Smith
Assistant Chief Counsel

The Department of Homeland Security has filed an interlocutory appeal from the Immigration Judge's November 28, 2017, decision granting a continuance of the respondent's removal proceedings to February 27, 2018. Ordinarily the Board does not entertain interlocutory appeals. See Matter of M-D-, 24 I&N Dec. 138, 139 (BIA 2007), and cases cited therein. We have on occasion accepted interlocutory appeals to address significant jurisdictional questions about the administration of the immigration laws, or to correct recurring problems in the handling of cases by Immigration Judges. See e.g., Matter of Guevara, 20 I&N Dec. 238 (BIA 1990, 1991); Matter of Dobere, 20 I&N Dec. 188 (BIA 1990). The issue of whether the Immigration Judge properly continued these removal proceedings does not present a significant jurisdictional question about the administration of the immigration laws. Nor does it involve a recurring problem in Immigration Judges' handling of cases. The issue raised in this interlocutory appeal does not fall within the limited ambit of cases where we would exercise our jurisdiction.

Accordingly, the following order will be entered.

ORDER: The record shall be returned to the Immigration Court with no further action.
