APPLICATIONS:

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: PRO SE

ON BEHALF OF DHS: CHRISTIE ROMERO

ORAL DECISION OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

I will grant the respondent pre-conclusion voluntary departure from the United States. He will have to depart on or before February 20, 2014; that is 120 days from today.

I have to advise him that if he fails to voluntarily depart on or before that date from the United States, then a removal order to Mexico would automatically be entered against him.

Furthermore, pursuant to Section 240B(d) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, he would be subject to the following penalties if he fails to depart on time. He would be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000. He would be ineligible for a period of ten years to receive cancellation of removal, adjustment of status, registry, voluntary departure or a change of non-immigrant status. If he files a motion to re-open or reconsider during the voluntary departure period, the voluntary departure will be terminated automatically. The alternate order of removal to Mexico would take effect immediately and the penalties for failing to depart voluntarily under Section 240B(d) of the Act would not apply. See 8 C.F.R. 1240.26(b)(3)(iii)(E)(i).
